Free Parent Sessions

This year we will again offer several optional sessions for parents of teen writers. These sessions are free for parents and siblings of OYAN students. We just need to know you're coming! How many adults plan to attend the free sessions?

On-Campus Housing

Students and their families have the option of staying in on-campus facilities, including Monday night, June 18th. Staying in the MNU dorms keeps everything -- teaching sessions, meal-times, and lodging -- within walking distance. Plus, the cost is much less than staying in a hotel if there are only two or three of you. (Of course, you won't have room-service, or hand-towels folded into animal shapes.) Dorm costs are discounted for families of four or more.

Meals

An All-Meals Package is available to students and family members for $90/person. It includes breakfast, lunch and dinner for four days (Tuesday through Friday). We highly recommend this option as it is extremely convenient for attendees and allows us all to eat meals together. Of course, you are free to eat at a local restaurant or pack a lunch. Additionally, we will be making pizza available Monday night for $5/person.

Video and Audio Recording

Recording any part of the Workshop is strictly prohibited. This includes cell phone videos. Non-flash cameras/photos are okay, as long as they're unobtrusive.

"4 Full Days of Epic Epicness!"

Mentoring Session

This year we are offering special 15 minute mentoring sessions with an adult writing mentor. These are short time slots in a semi-private setting where you can pitch your novel idea or story synopsis to someone with experience in the industry and get some helpful feedback on your work. Participation is optional, and space is limited. We cannot guarantee an opening, since we expect many more attendees than time slots. If you would like to participate, check the box below and attach two things :

1. A two paragraph synopsis of your novel.
2. A one paragraph summary of why you need and/or qualify for a mentoring session.

Yes! I would like to participate in a mentoring sessions.
